3. Rules for Performances

3.1. Each group is required to showcase a dance performance of up to two (2) minutes to any music of their choice. All groups must show the fusion of any genre of dance (including but not limited to: Street Style, Jazz, Street Jazz, Waacking, Reggae Dance, Ballet, Modern Dance, House, DanceSport, etc.) with local traditional dance culture (e.g. Chinese, Malay, Indian) in their routines.

3.2. Groups are to fulfil the following criteria for their video submissions:

- a. The video must not be more than two (2) minutes long, comprising of one (1) complete dance routine. The video must be "unlisted" on Youtube.
- b. The dance routine and faces (front view) of all Participants must be visible and clear in the submitted video.
- c. The video must comply with all prevailing and applicable Safe Management Measures (SMM) and guidelines (e.g. face masks must be worn at all times during the recording of the video at public places, etc.). Groups are expected to ensure that they check the updated SMMs and guidelines for the purpose of the video submissions.
- d. The video must show the entire routine performed in one take. Video editing and stitching of multiple videos into one (1) clip is not allowed and will result in deduction of points.

- e. The video submitted must adhere to the rules and regulations of the Competition.

- 3.3. Groups must ensure that their performances are family-friendly and do not contain any inappropriate content of any kind, including but not limited to violence, sexual references, nudity, language which is vulgar or insensitive to racial or religious groups and any form of messaging promoting sex, drugs, alcohol or abuse.

- 3.4. Groups shall ensure that their costumes are appropriate for the theme and dance routine and shall only use props which are hand-held. Groups must not use any dangerous / hazardous props or substances such as liquids, fire/flame, smoke, flammable objects/substances, sharp objects and/or any other materials that may affect the performance and/or safety of other Participants.

- 3.5. Each group shall only make one submission each. In the event of multiple submissions by a group, the Organiser shall only consider the submission first received. By making a submission, the group declares and represents to the Organiser that the submission is in compliance with all applicable and relevant laws and regulations (including those for intellectual property and personal data protection), and that all identifiable individuals in the video have given their consent and/or permission for the submission and for usage in this Competition.

4. Competition Finals

- 4.1. Groups proceeding to the Finals must provide a high-quality audio file for their Finals performance piece and submit them to the Organisers via email at least one week prior to the Pre-filming of the Finals Competition Piece. Participants must also prepare a back-up copy of the audio file in a thumb-drive, to be passed to the Organisers upon registration on the day of the Pre-Filming. The audio file provided should be of high audio quality.

- 4.2. Groups are to provide the Organisers with specific instructions on when to start the music prior to the start of their Finals performance.

- 4.3. The order of performances for groups pre-filming and presentation in the Finals shall be determined by the Organisers in a random draw.

- 4.4. Participants in the Finals may be subjected to onsite verification and must present their identification documents upon request by the Organisers.

- 4.5. Groups whose Participants do not turn up or are late for the Pre-filming of the Finals will be disqualified.

- 4.6. In the event that a group's performance is unable to proceed due to extraordinary circumstances which do not arise out of the group's acts or negligence (e.g. music problems due to technical fault, disturbances caused by equipment failure such as lighting, stage or sounds, etc.), the Organisers may in their sole discretion allow such affected group to re-stage their performance.

- 4.7. The Organisers will announce the results of the Competition at the end of the Finals. The winning groups must send representatives to be present for the prize presentation ceremony to receive the prizes. A group's failure to send representatives or be present for the prize presentation ceremony shall result in the forfeit of the prizes.

5. Evaluation criteria

- 5.1. All eligible video submissions will be scored by the scoring judges in the judging panel based on the scoring system below. The 10 groups in each category with the highest scores will be shortlisted for online voting by the public. Thereafter, based on the combined scores (i.e. judging panel's score + online voting score), the top 5 groups per category will advance to the Finals.
- 5.2. During the Finals, the groups will be judged by the scoring judges in the judging panel and online audience voting based on the scoring system below.

5.3. Scoring System

- a. Points will not be awarded for any part of the performance which exceeds the two (2) minute time limit.
- b. 80% - Evaluation by Judging Panel:

Each scoring judge in the judging panel will evaluate each performance based on the following criteria:

- i. Choreography: The dance arrangement and movements to showcase the group members' strength and how the local traditional element(s) is fused into the routine.
- ii. Theme and Music: The group's musicality, beat techniques/syncopation, timing, moves related to the theme, the choice of music and costumes to fit the overall theme.
- iii. Originality: The group's ability to incorporate unique and original/creative moves
- iv. Performance: The group's performance entertainment value appeal, staging, spacing formations and level changes, synchronization, execution showmanship and variety of dance routines.

- c. 20% - Online Voting:

For the video submissions, the videos of the top 10 groups per category will be made available for online voting by the public. The scoring will be based on the number of votes garnered by each video within the specified voting period.

During the Finals, online audience voting will be done concurrently with the judging by the judging panel.

5.4. Judging Panel

- a. The judging panel will consist of one (1) judges' coordinator, one (1) timer and four (4) scoring judges.

D:2 DANCE COMPETITION

PARADE SINGAPORE

- b. The roles of the panel: (1) Judges' Coordinator: Presides over the judging process and conducts pre-competition checks. (2) Timer: Records the timing of each dance group. (3) Scoring Judges: Score each group's performance based on the scoring system.
- c. All decisions made by the judges are final and no appeal will be entertained.

(B) GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

6. Personal Data

- 6.1. The Organisers may collect, use and/or disclose each Participant's personal information to their officers, employees, appointed service providers, affiliated organisations and event partners, as may be required for the administration of the Competition and all matters arising thereunder.
- 6.2. Further, each Participant agrees that the Organisers may use any photographs, videos and other recordings taken by the Organisers (which may capture said Participant) in any manner as the Organisers deem fit, including but not limited to use for publicity purposes or such other use in future, without the need for further approval or consent from the Participant. Where a video submission contains the personal data of individuals other than the Participant, the Group confirms and warrants that they have obtained each individual's consent for such use and disclosure of that individual's personal data for the purpose set out in this clause.

7. Responsibility for participation

- 7.1. By participating in the Competition, each Participant:
  - a. represents and warrants that he/she is physically and medically fit to participate and has no physical or medical condition that would make his/her participation unsafe or dangerous to him/her or to others; and
  - b. consents to the administration of first aid and other medical treatment and related services, including evacuation/transport, in the event of injury or illness in connection with his/her participation in the Competition.
- 7.2. Participants shall be responsible for their use of any musical works or any other intellectual property as part of their video submission. The Organisers shall not be responsible for any claims of infringement of intellectual property rights by third parties.
- 7.3. Save for any gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the part of the Organisers, each Participant agrees to indemnify the Organisers against any losses, damages, costs, expenses, claims or liabilities which the Organisers may incur or suffer as a result of or in connection with the Participant's involvement in the Competition.
- 7.4. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant agrees not to hold the Organisers, its affiliated organisations and event partners, officers, employees and agents liable for any loss, injury or damage suffered by him/her as a result of his/her participation in the Competition.

7.5. Any cost involved in the video submission is the Participant's responsibility.

8 Usage of Participants' Submissions

- 8.1 Ownership of all original intellectual property rights over a Group's submission ("IP") shall remain with the Group.
- 8.2 Each Participant of the Group grants the Organiser an unrestricted, royalty-free, world-wide, perpetual, irrevocable, non-exclusive licence to use, apply, reproduce, display (such as at a public exhibition), broadcast, modify, summarise, adapt, sub-license and communicate the Group's submission and IP for any purpose whatsoever and at any time, including (but not limited to) communicating the submission and IP to the public or to any entity or for any other form of publicity, without any payment or compensation to the Participants.
- 8.3 Each Participant of the Group represents, warrants and undertakes that the submission does not infringe any IP rights or interests of any third party in the IP, and that the Group has obtained all necessary consents for the use of any third party IP in the submission.
- 8.4 By making the submission, the Participants of the Group consents to the Organiser's publication of their names and social media platform identifiers (in the format of username, profile pictures) for publicity purposes.
- 8.5 Selected Participants of the Group may be contacted by the Organiser to understand more about the video submission and to explore being featured as part of the Chingay 2022 and/or the publicity for Chingay 2022.
- 8.6 For the avoidance of any doubt, all rights, titles and interests on the Chingay Website (www.chingay.gov.sg) "the Chingay Website" and its contents are owned by or licensed to the Organiser. No part of the content or material available on the Chingay Website may be reproduced, republished, transmitted, uploaded, posted, or otherwise distributed or disseminated in any way without the prior written permission of the Organiser.
